

The Board

A Summary Report of the March 12, 2024 CFSD Governing Board Meeting

Esperero Canyon Middle School (ECMS) Counselor Britney Griffith, ECMS Principal Mary Setliff, and Board Vice President Amy Krauss celebrate Ms. Griffith being named Arizona Counselor of the Year with a STAR Award

Catalina Foothills STAR Award

On behalf of the board, Vice President Amy Krauss presented a CFSD STAR Award to ECMS Counselor Britney Griffith. The board recognized Ms. Griffith for being named Arizona School Counselor of the Year by the Arizona School Counselors Association (AzSCA). Each year AzSCA selects one counselor in our state who demonstrates the highest standards of personal and professional conduct. Vice President Krauss congratulated Ms. Griffith on her selection and highlighted some of her many accomplishments, including the establishment of ECMS's counseling center - a welcoming and inclusive environment where students and families receive support and advice.

Award recipients receive a monetary reward and further consideration for National Counselor of the Year.

Esperero Canyon Band

The ECMS band also performed well at an ABODA Festival on March 2. The Intermediate Band received a rating of Excellent. Seventh Grade Band received a rating of Superior with Distinction. Eighth Grade Band also received a Superior with Distinction rating. Their director is Cory Walavich.

Approval of Revisions to Policy and Regulation IJNDB, Use of Technology Resources (second reading)

Associate Superintendent Denise Bartlett presented the second reading of revisions to policy and regulation IJNDB to remove outdated terminology and clarify rules governing the appropriate use of technology by students and staff. Since the first reading on February 27, 2024, there were additional revisions, including adding “up to and including termination” to the list of disciplinary actions that may be taken if an employee misuses, abuses, or chooses not to follow the policy, and adding “students” to the list of those for whom an employee’s social media post should not reflect negatively upon. The board underscored the importance of all CFSD employees knowing about board policies, regulations, and procedures, and then they approved the revised policy and regulation, as presented.

Approval of Revisions to Policy and Regulation CCB, Line and Staff Relations (second reading)

Dr. Kamerzell presented the second reading of revisions to policy and regulation CCB to eliminate reference to a repealed statute and a parental satisfaction survey that is contained in another policy (KB, Parental Involvement in Education). The board approved the revised policy and regulation, as presented.

Approval of Revisions to Policy CFD, School-Based Management (second reading)

Dr. Kamerzell presented the second reading of revisions to policy CFD to remove reference to the number of members on school/site councils and to stipulate that the process for appointing school/site council members applies only during its organization (and thereafter the council applies its own adopted guidelines). Since the first reading, “site” was added to each reference of a school council and two outdated terms were replaced. The board approved the revised policy, as presented.

Approval of Revisions to Policy EBAA, Reporting of Hazards / Warning Systems (second reading)

Dr. Kamerzell presented the second reading of revisions to policy EBAA to align the policy with current statutes regarding pesticide application and eliminate outdated legal references regarding the application of pesticides. The board approved the revised policy, as presented.

Approval of Revisions to Policy ECB, Buildings and Grounds Maintenance (second reading)

Dr. Kamerzell presented the second reading of revisions to policy ECB to remove reference to an indoor air quality management plan or coordinator because both are obsolete. A paragraph was added to define “preventive maintenance.” The board approved the revised policy, as presented.

Approval of Revisions to Policy, EEAA Walkers and Riders (second reading)

Dr. Kamerzell presented the second reading of revisions to Policy EEAA to conform the policy with the governing statute. The policy now specifies “no more than 30” as the number of one-way miles within which the district may provide bus transportation. The board approved the revised policy, as presented.

Approval of Non-Renewable Teacher Contracts

Dr. Bartlett presented for the board’s approval a list of teachers to be hand-delivered a written notice about the governing board action not to renew their employment contract for the 2024-2025 school year. Dr. Bartlett explained the reasons why certain employment contracts are ineligible for automatic renewal, such as when a contract is held by a first-year or retired teacher, is grant-funded, was entered into after September 1, or is part-time. The board approved the list of non-renewable teacher contracts, as presented.

Consideration of Revisions to Policy JFABDA, Admission of Students in Foster Care (first reading)

Dr. Bartlett presented the first reading of revisions to conform the district’s policy for admission of students in foster care with new statutory language. The policy now states that “within two days” these students will be enrolled and academic records from the last school of enrollment will be requested. Previously the timeframe for doing both was “immediately.”

Consideration of Revisions to Policy JH, Student Absences and Excuses (first reading)

Dr. Bartlett presented the first reading of revisions to Policy JH, Student Absences and Excuses. Revisions include adding “mental or behavioral health” to the list of reasons for an excused absence and removing the requirement of obtaining an admission slip after an absence. The board suggested other revisions for consideration before the second reading.

Consideration of Revisions to Policy JHD, Exclusions and Exemptions from School Attendance (first reading)

Dr. Bartlett presented the first reading of revisions to Policy JH, Exclusions and Exemptions from School Attendance. The revisions include expanding the list of appropriately certified health professionals who can identify chronic health conditions. The board discussed consideration of adding “therapist” to the list.
